OUR MISSION

The mission of New Village Arts is to create adventurous artistic experiences to awaken the human spirit.

WE VALUE

An inclusive community, unique voices, innovative thinkers, and art that reflects a wide range of identities, histories, ideas, and beliefs.

EDI STATEMENT

In our journey to awaken the human spirit through adventurous artistic experiences, we commit to inclusivity, diversity, and equity – which means taking bold steps that may be uncomfortable for some. We must evaluate the stories we choose to tell, the voices that we choose to amplify, and the environment we choose to cultivate.

DIVERSITY

Acknowledges and celebrates our differences in full color – including but not limited to race, gender, sexuality, ability, neurodiversity, religion, body type, country of origin, age, economics, and socio-economic background.

INCLUSION

Values personal differences that are distinct, unique, and outside of our own lived experiences. It means actively welcoming and inviting to the table those who may have been historically excluded.

EQUITY

Acknowledges that though everyone might have a seat at the table, not everyone's seat is the same. It recognizes systemic disparities and each person's proximity to privilege, and directly addresses the barriers to access and opportunity. Diversity and inclusion alone will not allow for full participation – equity is an essential tool to recognize and address differences in privilege.

SEASON 20 HIGHLIGHTS

OVERALL

NVA was an itinerant theatre company in 2021-2022, producing shows at multiple locations around San Diego County while our home facility was under construction.

EDUCATION & OUTREACH

NVA continued our popular online programs like the NVA Film Club and produced two full productions at The Flower Fields with our groundbreaking Mainstage Players program for teens and young adults with neurodiversity: THE MECHANICALS and STELLALUNA.

NEW PLAY FESTIVAL

NVA presented 10 original, world premiere play readings and hosted two panel discussions, matched with the perfect craft beers from Pure Project Brewing.

SUMMER AT THE FLOWER FIELDS

In addition to The Mainstage Players productions, NVA produced two full musicals: BEEHIVE and LEONARD BERNSTEIN'S NEW YORK, both playing to full houses and receiving rave reviews. NVA also hosted a complete music series with local bands including We The Commas, Electric Waste Band, and Sabrosas Latin Orchestra, filling The Flower Fields with music and dancing.

FINANCIALS

REVENUE

To achieve our mission of creating adventurous artistic experiences, New Village Arts relies on donations from individuals as well as private and public support. This year more than ever before, the generosity of our community supplemented critical COVID relief, enabling NVA to maintain our artistic integrity and sustain new creative developments even during challenging times. Thanks to fundraising efforts, NVA continued to provide a home for artistic expression when it was needed the most.

RENOVATIONS FUNDRAISING

TOTAL RAISED TO-DATE: $898,367

During the COVID pandemic shutdown, NVA laid the groundwork for a major capital fundraising campaign for building renovations. Leadership gifts from the Sahn Family Foundation and the Nordson Corporation Foundation led the way. This year, major gifts from the Prebys Foundation, the County of San Diego, K.A. Keller, Jack & Valerie Cumming, and the trusts of the White, Ginn, and Missett families brought us closer to our goal.

EXPENSES

The majority of our expenses go directly into creating the award-winning, creative productions that NVA has become known for as well as for the staff supporting those productions. We pride ourselves on working with some of the greatest actors, designers, technicians, and creative minds in San Diego and North County, and for our inclusive hiring practices that ensure all members of our community are represented in all areas of our work. NVA was founded on the principle that all artists should be fairly compensated for their contributions, and we are proud to highlight their work on our stage and behind the scenes.
