MEET THE PERFORMERS

Alyssa Anne Austin is overjoyed to be presenting this cabaret full of inspiring, ambitious women who she admires so much! Alyssa is an award-winning actor, comedienne, and entrepreneur based in both San Diego & NYC. Select regional credits: Noises Off, Murder on the Orient Express (The Old Globe); The Play That Goes Wrong (La Mirada Theatre); Follies, Cabaret (Cygnet); POP Tour: Jin vs the Beach (La Jolla Playhouse), The Complete Works of Jane Austen, Abridged (ETC); Murder on the Links (World Premiere - North Coast Rep & Laguna Playhouse); 42nd Street (Moonlight Stage Productions); Spamalot (Welk), Catch Me If You Can (SDMT). Her "part TED Talk, part Broadway cabaret" one-woman show, Always a Banana, Never the Bride: An Ode to Broadway's "Lesser Ladies," won the BroadwayWorld San Diego Award for Best Cabaret/Concert/Solo Performance.

Before fully embracing her artistic path, Alyssa spent 7+ years as a marketing professional - a chapter of her journey that fuels her belief that it's never too late to reinvent yourself and follow your dreams. Today, she blends her artistry with entrepreneurship through her coaching business, Poised & Professional, where she empowers clients to develop confidence, discover their unique gifts, and own their stories.

Alyssa is a proud member of Actors Equity, and represented by FSE Talent. She believes deeply in the power of hard work, goal-setting, and manifestation - which is why you can expect to see her on Broadway by the end of this year! Morgan Carberry has worked as a professional actor, singer, vocal coach, music director and accompanist for over twenty years on both sides of the Atlantic. A native of San Diego, she completed her undergraduate education at Wellesley College in Boston, where she received a prestigious Marshall Scholarship to pursue her graduate training in musical theatre and classical acting in the United Kingdom. With MFAs from the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland and the Drama Centre London, Morgan completed her masters in arts management at Queen Margaret University in Edinburgh before starting her own theatre company and producing and performing her own one-woman show at the world famous Edinburgh Fringe Festival. Since returning to San Diego in 2014, Morgan has worked at many regional theatres including the Old Globe, the La Jolla Playhouse, Cygnet Theatre, Moonlight Amphitheater, New Village Arts and more. She has been a private voice teacher at JCompany Youth Theatre and throughout San Diego for over a decade, and enjoys helping students of all ages and abilities to improve their confidence and find joyful expression through song! Her acapella groups the Seaside Serenaders, the Explorers, and the Tinseltone Carolers perform regionally at venues such as the world famous San Diego Zoo and the monthly Art Walks in La Jolla Village all year long.

Rachel Dillon is thrilled to sing and share the stage tonight with these talented ladies! A theater school drop out, she recently returned to the stage last year and has loved coming back to performing. Recent credits include Portia in Something Rotten (Star Theater Co), Sylvia in Sylvia, Allison/Google Girl in First Date (Point Loma Playhouse), and Annabella/Claudia u/s in Nine (Coronado Playhouse). Rachel is also a member of the San Diego Symphony Chorus and sings professionally around San Diego. When not performing, she works as a registered dietitian providing telehealth nutrition counseling - and is creating a nutrition course just for performers! Special thanks to her parents, vocal coach Elly, and partner Phil for being her biggest fan on and off the stage. RachelDillon.com
